

Postcard from a book character

Fun activity for your students to write a postcard as though they are a character from a book e.g. Harry Potter writing to Ron Weasley in the summer holidays, or Katniss Everdeen writing to her sister just before the Hunger Games.

Postcard template with a blue and black striped border. The front features a dashed box for an address on the left and a dashed box for a stamp on the right, containing a wavy line. The back has a vertical line separating the message area on the left from the address area on the right, which has four horizontal dashed lines.

Postcard template with a blue and black striped border. The front features a dashed box for an address on the left and a dashed box for a stamp on the right, containing a wavy line. The back has a vertical line separating the message area on the left from the address area on the right, which has four horizontal dashed lines.